An Unworthy Trick.

In a recent Fall Mail Gazette we find a good story of a landed proprietor in Switzerland, who was very much interested in a railway matter upon which the district where he was landed had to vote. He wanted it to vote affirmatively, and so he let it be generally understood that every voter would become the recipient of a liberal hamper of wine, provided there was no negative vote to be found in the ballot box. The number of voters, including the great man himself, totaled 103, and on the day when the voting was to be taken every one of them went to the poll. Not only that, but every one of that crowd went to the poll with the conviction that that hamper of wine was as good as in his cellar. Their disgust, therefore, may be readily imagined when the ballot box was found to contain 107 affirmative papers and one negative. To the imagination which must be left to the language in which their feelings found expression when they arrived at the certainty that the landed proprietor had landed them by giving that vote himself.

Every Bullet Its Own Doctor.

In spite of the terrible increase in the destructiveness of modern warfare the tendency of the times is to make a conflict as humane as practicable. For this reason the use of copper covered bullets has been frowned upon, and a Philadelphia physician has a plan that he claims will wonderfully mitigate the suffering of a man whose body has been perforated by the modern small caliber bullet. It is well established that the velocity and penetrating force of these bullets are so great that unless they chance to strike a bone they will pass entirely through a man's body without his knowing it. The physician's idea is to attach a small wad of unseptic cotton to the rear of the bullet. This would be covered by the shell of the cartridge and could not interfere with loading or firing. As the bullet passes through a person the wad will antiseptize the wound and prevent consequent suppuration. It may be possible to so nicely adjust the adhesion of the wad to the bullet that as the missile passes out it will leave the wad to plug the hole and stop bleeding. Ultimately this system might do away with the necessity of a large medical corps in such bullet wars carry with it a patient for the unfortunate wounded man. The Philadelphia Record.

A young lawyer is one of the leading make-up men in the city. A few days ago he was in the city, a rural hamlet in the county. While there he ran across one of the characters of the place, a quaint old man whom he had known over since he could remember.

"How business in town?" inquired the aged man.
"Pretty good," replied the lawyer.
"What you doing now?"
"Practicing law."
"What's your brother Jim doing?"
"Jim is running a hotel," and he named one of the largest public houses in the city.
"Is Jim married yet?"
"No."
The old man raised his head with a commiserating glance. Then he drily observed:
"Has to depend on hired help, eh?"

One of Muller's Anecdotes.

Froude and Kingsley were special favorites of Professor Max Muller, according to his recently published memoirs. Kingsley's refusal to pray for rain—or, as his friend expresses it, to degrade his sacred office to that of a rainmaker or a medicine man—reminds the professor of a story told to Kingsley by an American.

In America we manage these things better. A clergyman in a village on the frontier between two of our states prayed for rain. The rain came, and it soaked the ground to such an extent that the young lambs in the neighboring state caught cold and died. An action was brought against the clergyman for the mischief he had done, and he and his parishioners were condemned to pay damages to the sheep farmers. They never prayed for rain after that.—Los Angeles News.

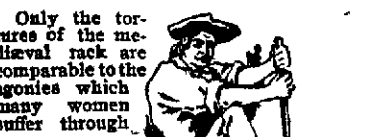

Her Face on the Plates.

A new industry, first put forward under the patronage of Mrs. John Jacob Astor, has blossomed forth. This rich young woman, one of the most prominent and beautiful of New York's fashionable matrons, has had her own face painted with most exquisite art on six very choice Sevres plates that are only used for her smallest and most select luncheon parties. The plates show Mrs. Astor in evening dress, tailor dress, reception gown, skating furs, in a delicate summer muslin and in her bridal gown.

We hand folks over to God's mercy and show none ourselves.—George Eliot.

STATE LAND OFFICE, CARSON CITY, Nev., September 3, 1897.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE State of Nevada, under the Act of Congress approved June 16, 1850 (Stat. 257), has in the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, List No. 220 of lands selected under said Act, and has applied for a patent for said lands, that a part of said list is open to the public for inspection, and a copy thereof, by descriptive subdivisions, has been posted in a convenient place in said United States Land Office for the inspection of all persons interested and the public generally.
Within the next sixty days following the date of this notice protests and contentions against the claim of said State of Nevada to any tract or subdivisions described in the list, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than agricultural purposes, will be received by the United States Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D. C.
The following are the subdivisions described to wit:
SW 1/4 of NW 1/4 and NW 1/4 of SE 1/4 of Sec. 16, T. 24, N. E. 13 R., M. D. 13 & 14—32 acres.

Only the tortures of the medieval rack are comparable to the agonies which many women suffer through.

the peculiar weaknesses and diseases of their delicate, feminine structure. Nothing less than unbearable torment could induce sensitive-minded women to submit to the intolerable methods of the average doctor in dealing with diseases of this nature.

That there is "a better way" than these detestable "examinations" and "local applications" is a truth which some women have yet to learn, although thousands are already rejoicing in the knowledge. They have found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the one unfailing remedy which restores absolute health to the internal organism; stops weakening drains and ulcerated conditions, gives elastic strength to the supporting ligaments, vitality to the nerve centers, and complete womanly vigor to the entire constitution.

It is the perfect fortifier and regulator of women at every critical period in their development, from the time when they merge into womanhood until the "change of life." It is the one medicine which makes motherhood safe and almost free from pain.

A lady living at 7 Park Avenue, Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Emily Howe, writes: "I myself, advised to be going into a decline. Took several bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and it saved me from a great deal of suffering. I now enjoy perfect health and will ever praise the wonderful efficacy of your medicine."

The best popular medical book in the world is Dr. R. V. Pierce's 1000-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser. It will be sent free, paper bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only. Address the Doctor at Buffalo, N. Y., or send 31 stamps for cloth bound copy.

FREE TRIAL TO ANY HONEST MAN

The Foremost Medical Company in the World in the Cure of Weak Men Makes this Offer

HAPPY MARRIAGE, HEALTH, ENERGY AND LONG LIFE.

In all the world today—in all the history of the world—no doctor or institution has treated and restored so many men as has the famed ERIC MEDICAL CO., of Buffalo, N. Y.

This is due to the fact that the company controls some inventions and discoveries which have no equal in the whole realm of medical science. So much deception has been practiced in advertising this great old company now makes this startling offer:

"I will send their costly and magically effective appliances and a whole month's course of restorative remedies, positively on trial, without expense, to any honest and reliable man!"

Not a dollar need be advanced—not a penny paid—full results are known to and acknowledged by the patient.

The ERIC MEDICAL COMPANY'S appliances and remedies have been talked about and written about all over the world, till every man has heard of them. They restore or create strength, vigor, healthy tissue and new life.

They cure nervousness, depression, and all the effects of evil habits, excesses over work, etc.

They give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body. Failure is impossible and age is no barrier.

This "trial without expense" offer is naturally limited by the company to a short time, and application must be made at once.

Write to the ERIC MEDICAL COMPANY, BUFFALO, N. Y., and give your express address as well as your post-office. Refer to seeing the account of their offer in this paper.

The State University is one of the public institutions of Nevada to which the people point with honest pride. It was Senator Stewart who eleven years ago secured legislation by which Government aid was procured for the University. He drafted a bill, which was passed by the Legislature of 1887, relating to the State University. This Act provided for an agricultural as well as a mining and mechanical department at the State University so that the provisions of the Act of Congress providing for Experiment Stations would apply to it. This accomplished he procured an order establishing an Agricultural Experiment Station in connection with the University for which the Government appropriates $15,000 annually.

Subsequent to this action Senator Stewart took up what is known as the "Morrill bill," which had been pending in Congress for more than a dozen years. He consulted with Senator Morrill and pointed out the objections to the bill and conferred with the House Committee on Public Lands on the subject. The result was that Senator Stewart redrafted the bill, eliminated its objectionable features and it passed both Houses of Congress. This Act appropriated $15,000 for the first year and provided that the amount be increased $1,000 yearly until it reached $25,000 a year, which sum is to be paid annually from the National Treasury for the support of each State University. This year, for the first time, Nevada receives $25,000 for the support of the State University, besides $15,000 for the Experiment Station, making $40,000 in all.

The Act also provides for a Military Instructor who shall be detailed by the War Department from the army and whose services as such instructor shall be paid for out of the army appropriation.

The Board of Regents in recognition of the energetic action of Senator Stewart in securing the passage of the University bill by Congress named one of the principal buildings at the University "Stewart Hall."

The people of Nevada have not and will not forget what Senator Stewart has done for their principal seat of learning, and especially should the people of Reno remember it, as the University is one of the chief attractions of the city and is of material benefit to business men and others. The action of Senator Stewart makes it possible for Nevada to maintain this great educational institution, for without the appropriation made by Congress, Nevada could not well support it, desirable as it is, in these years of gold standard prosperity.

Let the gold vipers hiss and spew their venom at Senator Stewart. A grateful people will neutralize their poison by returning him to the Senate, where he is recognized by men of all parties as among the ablest champions of monetary reform, and conceded to be the most energetic and untiring worker in the Upper House of Congress.

APPROVES THE GOLD STANDARD.

Iowa Republicans have obeyed the mandate of Mr. Hanna, Chairman of the National Republican Central Committee, and declared for the single gold standard. At the State convention held at Dubuque, last Friday the following financial plank was adopted:

"The experience of the last two years has fully approved the gold standard policy of the Republican party as declared by the National Convention of 1896. We recognize the necessity of comprehensive and enlightened monetary legislation. The monetary standard of this country and the commercial world is gold. The permanence of this standard must be assured by Congressional legislation, giving to it a validity and vitality of public law."

Up to and including the first six months of 1896, the Republicans declared that experience had proved that the restoration of silver to its historic place as a money metal was essential to the prosperity of the country, and a National Republican convention denounced Cleveland's Administration for its efforts to demonetize silver. It seems that experience from 1873 to 1896 proved to the Republicans that the restoration of the true bimetallic standard, namely, at the ratio of 16 to 1, is an indispensable requirement for a volume of stable circulating money sufficient to place the business of the country on a permanently prosperous basis, while experience in the last two years has proved to Mr. Hanna that the single gold standard is the best thing for the country. It seems that experience is wholly dominated by Mr. Hanna, and that he can prove anything by it. In two years he makes it refute all that it taught in twenty-two years, and his henchmen swear that he, they and it are right all the time.

He can change the Principles of his party as readily as the chameleon does its hues, and with a campaign fund of millions, contributed by the gold syndicate and other monopolies, he has no difficulty in getting the press and the spoliemen of his party to stultify themselves, and disavow in this campaign the "eternal truths" which they promulgated in a preceding campaign.

FEVER MORE FATAL THAN BULLETS.

The Chicago Tribune prints statistics, which show that camp life during the Spanish war was much more fatal to American troops than the bullets and bayonets of the Spaniards. In all the engagements between the American and Spanish forces 850 officers and privates on the American side, were killed in battle or died of wounds received. The deaths in the military camps from diseases which were mostly preventable aggregated somewhere between 1,200 and 2,000. The deaths from disease at the several camps are given as follows:

Santiago, 341; Camp Thomas, 862; San Francisco, 78; Camp Alger, 75; Camp Wilkoff, 63; Jacksonville, 50; Tampa, 58; Miami, 76; Fernandina, Lakeland, Camp Meade and other minor camps, in private hospitals, at home, etc., 115; State camps, 30; the transports and hospital ships, 90; Total, 1,284.

More men died of disease at Camp Thomas, in the United States, than at Santiago, in Cuba, and nearly five times as many men died in camp as were killed in battle. The men were all examined and pronounced physically perfect before they were mustered into the United States, three months ago, so that the diseases which proved fatal must have been contracted after the men were enlisted.

Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in the most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

THE VOLUNTEER CAVALRY.

How the Government Treats the Men Who Volunteered to Fight for the Country.

The following dispatch was received from Captain Cox of the Nevada Volunteer Cavalry troop:

JACKSONVILLE, Florida, Sept. 3, 1893.

Governor R. Sadler, Carson City, Nevada—The paymaster refuses to pay transportation on discharge of men beyond Cheyenne, Wyoming, claiming that Carson City was not the place of their enlistment. Please see Congressman Newlands and take up the matter with the War Department to save our sick boys' money.

W. L. Cox, Captain.

The troop was organized at Carson City and is composed principally of young men who are natives of Nevada. It was ordered to Cheyenne to be mustered into the service of the United States, as Troop M, Second Regiment, U. S. Volunteer Cavalry, (Torrey's Rough Riders). Now this great and glorious Government, which has been conducting the war on a political basis, refuses to pay transportation of the boys to the place where they enlisted, and Mr. Hanna's organs boast that there is $294,000,000 of money lying idle in the Treasury.

It is greatly to be hoped that Mr. Newlands and Senator Stewart as well as Governor Sadler, will immediately telegraph to Washington, protesting against this outrage.

Last Night's Meeting.

Pursuant to a notice quite a gathering assembled at the Courthouse last night for the purpose of selecting a list of sixty-eight names to be voted for at the Silver party primaries to be held next Saturday, the 10th, for delegates to the Silver party County Convention.

Mr. Beck called the meeting to order and was elected Chairman. O. H. Perry was chosen Secretary.

Mr. Beck stated the purpose of the meeting, and suggested that a motion would be in order to proceed with the business for which the meeting had been called.

Mr. Richardson moved that the meeting proceed to nominate sixty-eight delegates and no more, to be placed upon a ticket to be voted at the Silver party primaries.

Mr. John Hogan argued that more than sixty-eight names should be suggested, or there would be no contest and no necessity for a primary election.

Mr. Beck thought the point was not well taken and Mr. Richardson's motion was carried.

It was decided that as the names were suggested the Secretary should write them down until the necessary number required were obtained.

The following names were then suggested to be voted for as delegates and upon motion of Dr. Bowman were accepted as the ticket for the Silver party primaries to be held on September 10th:

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

How It Feels and the After Effects.

Luigi Quanchi, who was struck by a bolt of lightning at Yori's Dairy near Gardnerville on August 6th, is visiting Mr. L. Yori, who now owns the old Derby place at Glendale. Mr. Quanchi has almost entirely recovered from the effects of his terrible experience, but as yet is unable to go to work. He gives the experience which so nearly cost him his life as follows:

He had just quit pitching hay and had started towards the barnyard, carrying a pitchfork on his shoulder, when he was suddenly knocked down. For a few moments he was rendered unconscious, but soon came to himself and although he could reason that some accident had happened, he could not speak or move. Finally the sense of feeling began to come back and he found he could move his arm, so he began to beckon to a boy some distance away who was driving a rake. The boy saw his signals and seeing Quanchi on the ground called to some men for assistance who hurried to the prostrate man and found that he had been struck by lightning. They secured a blanket and carried him to a house near at hand and sent for a physician. As his sense of feeling returned he began to experience excruciating pains which soon became almost unbearable. It was found that the bolt of lightning had struck the lines of the fork, twisting them and breaking one off altogether, the electric fluid then followed the handle until it came in contact with Quanchi's neck just at the upper portion of the spine. It followed the spine down to the waist where it separated into three currents or branches one following under the waistband of his overalls to his watch pocket containing a watch. The time piece stopped at 3:35. This branch of the fluid then cut diagonally across his abdomen. The other two branches spread, running over his hips and down the inside of each leg to the ankle, burning both ankles badly and continuing through the soles of his shoes into the ground. The shoes were very heavy and were new, but they are torn and rent as if they had been through a threshing machine. The elastic sides of each shoe on the inside of the foot were entirely burned away and doubtless this caused the severe burns on the ankle. The soles of the shoes as well as heels were torn, the nails being pulled entirely out. The course of the lightning from the man's neck to his feet was marked by a reddish brown line, similar to that which would be made on the flesh by the burn of a rope drawn rapidly over the surface.

Mr. Quanchi is improving steadily, but says he feels very weak and a constant lassitude seems to pervade his whole system. He does not care to try the experience a second time.

His cheese and butter dairy is located near Gardnerville, Douglas county, and he makes a specialty of the Young America cream cheese. He has some idea of establishing a creamery at the Derby ranch and moving his cheese manufactory there. He expects to make a display in the Pavilion the coming Fair, including dairy and agricultural products.

NEVADA BATTALION.

It Is Bulletinized for Disbandment.

The War Department has issued a bulletin naming the troops that are to be mustered out of the service. Among those on the list is the Nevada Infantry Battalion, which is to be mustered out at Carson City.

The law provides that volunteers shall be paid from the time of their enlistment and shall receive transportation to their homes. The members of the Nevada Battalion have not been paid since they enlisted. Many of them came from eastern counties, and a dozen or more from Lincoln county in the extreme southern part of the State. The Lincoln county men paid their fare by way of Salt Lake City and Ogden to Elko, where they joined the National Guard company, and from there went to Carson City, which was designated by the War Department as the place of rendezvous. The question now is with these men, "Will the Government furnish them transportation to Elko or to DeLamar?"

Captain Stoddard arrived from Carson last evening. He says Major Morrison received a dispatch from the Adjutant General at Washington ordering them to issue furloughs to all the officers and men for thirty days, with the exception of about 50 men, who will have to remain to take care of Government property. These furloughs will be made out as soon as the blanks arrive at Carson.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottle of this Great Discovery at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

The Wheelmen's Picnic.

The Wheelmen's picnic at Poor's Grove yesterday afternoon and evening was largely attended. A constant stream of vehicles carried passengers to and from the grounds during the afternoon and in the evening the stores generally closed at 7:30 in order to give proprietors as well as employees an opportunity to spend a jolly evening. Dancing was the feature and it was kept up under the soft light of the moon and incandescent lights until midnight. All who attended pronounce the affair a splendid success socially as the Wheelmen's events always are. Hastings' Wheelmen's band furnished excellent music.

Important to Working Men.

I have just received a complete and large stock of gent's furnishing goods, overalls, underwear, socks, gloves, neckties, collars, cuffs, etc., direct from the factory. A lad in one of the London board schools was found guilty of a serious infraction of discipline and was directed by his teacher to tell his mother when he got home what misdemeanor he had committed.

The next morning the schoolmistress called Johnnie to her desk, when the following dialogue ensued:

"Well, Master Johnnie, did you inform your mother what refraction of discipline you were guilty of yesterday and the reprimand and punishment you received?"

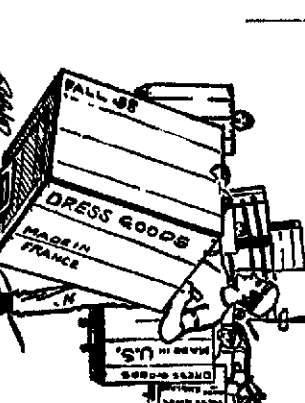

"Yes'm," was the sententious reply.

"Well, and what did your mother say?"

"She said she'd like to wring your neck for you."

No more discipline reports were sent home to that mother. — Pearson's Weekly.
